

Maps stolen in November 2008

In November 2008, 24 atlases and 188 maps relating to Greece and Ancient History were stolen from a private collection in London. Please click the link below to see the full lists. Very recently the Hornius 1660 folio of 66 maps of Amsterdam was recognised and recovered by a bookseller in Edinburgh. Please be on the look out for other items from the collection and contact the ABA office (admin@aba.org.uk) if you have any information.
